District Clerk Pro Tem
The meeting was called to order in the Millbrook Middle School, Room 25 at 7:38 p.m. by Mr. Hurley and he led the Pledge of Allegiance.

There were three members of the community and one member of the media in attendance.

Technology Presentation: Diane Morey
Ms. Morey reviewed the recent history of the total computers in use, district-wide, as well as the 2014-2015 inventory of computers for student and staff use. She stated that, generally, the District computers are half Windows and half Mac based. She added that the district has been trending toward shifting from desktops to mobile laptops.

She also reviewed a seven year history of computer equipment lease amounts which have stayed relatively stable.

Additionally, Ms. Morey stated that the printer versus copier cost has been investigated and that the copier printing is less expensive. Consequently, she shared that a district goal was to equalize printer access across the district which would be a cost saving and efficiency measure.

A discussion ensued regarding the future of computer technology in schools.

A motion was made by Mr. Ross and seconded by Mr. Tobin to accept the minutes of the meeting of July 14, 2014 as presented. Motion carried. Vote: 7-yes, 0-no.

Mr. D’Angelo shared
• Mr. D’Angelo shared excerpts from a letter to the Board from Ryan
Judge thanking the Board for their support with the FCCLA National Competition trip.

- Mr. D’Angelo reviewed the recent Poughkeepsie Journal story which stated that New York owes schools $5.9 billion, and Dutchess schools, $84 million. He added that New York owes Millbrook, $1.522 million.
- Mr. D’Angelo reviewed a memo from the New York State Board of Regents where NYSED released 50% of the questions from Grades 3-8 State Assessments.
- Mr. D’Angelo distributed a letter encouraging the taxpayers of Clinton to start their own school district in order to reduce their school taxes.

Superintendent’s Report Highlights:

- Facilities Tour – August 28th, 8:00 a.m.
- New Teacher Orientation – August 26-27th

A discussion ensued regarding the past practice of Board goals and how to proceed with the development of the 2014-2015 Board goals. Mr. Rudy added that he is advocating for a long-term Facilities and Grounds Plan.

The meeting was called to order in the Millbrook Middle School Library at 7:44 p.m. by Mr. Hurley and he led the Pledge of Allegiance.

There were four members of the community and no members of the media in attendance.

Victor Churchill from the firm Sickler, Torchia, Allen & Churchill, reviewed a summary of the auditors’ results which reflected a snapshot of the findings for the year ending June 30, 2014. He noted that there was a continuation of the deficit for the School Lunch Fund which was larger than in the past, but not a major concern at this time.

A discussion ensued regarding the cause of the cafeteria deficit.

Kathy Affigne, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Instruction and Pupil Personnel Services gave a presentation regarding the Grades 3-8 State Assessments results. She gave a review of the history of the Common Core in New York State. With the exception of grade 3, she shared that Millbrook scored higher on the ELA tests than the Dutchess County and New York State averages. For the Grades 3-8 Math results, Millbrook scored higher in every grade than the Dutchess County and New York State averages. She reviewed what the assessment results tell us and how those results inform our programs. She noted how the new Educational Vistas software will assist teachers and administrators to increase student performance on state assessments.

Kathleen Affigne also presented a Special Education Report. She reviewed the RtI process (Response to Intervention), the Classification rate, the Special Education graduation rate, drop-out rate and suspension rate. She reviewed the next steps, which is professional development to identify interventions and develop intervention methods to include the declassification of students.

A motion was made by Mr. Ross and seconded by Mr. Lehmkuhl to accept the minutes of the meeting of September 15, 2014 as presented.
